

FOUND DEAD IN A CAB.

Jersey City Woman Dies Under Peculiar Circumstances.

Was Being Driven Home in the Company of a Negro.

Her Companion, Daniel White, Afterwards Arrested.

At an early hour this morning Police Officer Hogan had his attention attracted to a cab which stopped in front of 281 Newark avenue, Jersey City. The driver waited for the occupant of the cab to get out, but as this was not done, the policeman opened the door of the cab, when the body of a dead woman fell out of the vehicle into the policeman's arms.

The dead woman proved to be Mrs. Anderson, of 281 Newark avenue. The driver of the cab said that he had been hired by Daniel White, a colored man, to drive him and the woman to the latter's residence. The woman was wearing a blue dress, and the policeman saw that when they reached Monmouth street, the woman jumped out of the cab and disappeared.

Mrs. Anderson's husband was aroused from his sleep by the police and informed of his wife's death. The body was taken into the house, where County Physician Connelley examined the woman and died of heart disease.

Subsequently, Daniel White was arrested by Justice O'Donnell. He stated that he resided at 221 Third street, and had on several occasions been hired by Mrs. Anderson to drive her to her home in Jersey City. He said that after they started from the Grand street house, Mrs. Anderson became worse and suddenly gasped and died. White said he became frightened and jumped out of the cab. He was held to await an investigation by the authorities.

HER CRIES BROUGHT HELP.

James J. Williams Under Arrest on a Serious Charge.

James J. Williams, thirty-five years old, unmarried, and who said he had no occupation, is in the custody of the police. He was arrested at his home at 100 West 11th street, where he was found by police officers. Williams believed that he is the man who attempted to assault Mrs. Alice Hucar on Sunday night at her home at 100 West 11th street, and was charged with the same.

Mrs. Hucar retired with her children about 9 o'clock. Her husband was talking with some friends on the stoop of a neighbor's house until after 10 o'clock. The neighborhood was startled by cries for help from Mrs. Hucar's house, and saw a man escaping through a second-story window. He and his wife, who were in the house, fled in a panic.

The man had attempted to assault Mrs. Hucar, who fought desperately until her cries brought her husband. In the struggle the fellow lost his slouch hat and pipe.

Williams was captured by Police Capt. Thompson in this city.

Williams, who is a half-witted peddler, was merely arrested on suspicion. It was found that he had been in the neighborhood of the Morristown Police Court, where there was no evidence upon which to hold him, and he was discharged.

M'ENROE-PECK WEDDING.

Archbishop Corrigan Makes an Address After the Ceremony.

In St. Patrick's Cathedral at noon today Miss Eleanor Forrester Peck, daughter of Capt. Frederick J. Peck, who has been a master in the employ of the Long Island Steamboat Company for thirty years, was married by Archbishop Corrigan to Eugene Kinneady, of this city.

Archbishop Corrigan delivered a short address, and a nuptial mass followed, celebrated by the Rev. Anthony Kessinger. Mr. McEnroe is a direct descendant of the Kinneads, of Kinneady's Head, Scotland.

The maid of honor was Miss Beale McEnroe, and the best man was Paul Halpin. The wedding was a private affair, and the wedding breakfast followed at Sherry's.

TRUCKLOAD OF BAD SARDINES

Thought to Be the Same as Poisoned the Morton Family.

Fruit Inspector B. C. Fuller reported to Dr. Lederle, Acting Chief Chemist to the Board of Health, this morning that he had seized and condemned 475 cans of domestic sardines, and disposed of them at the Canal street dump.

The sardines were found by an inspector on a truck bound for an auction-house. The driver stated that he had taken the sardines from a push-cart vendor last week. The family was taken from the truck, and the sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

The sardines were found to be the same as those which had poisoned the Morton family.

IN A SALOON WITH HER CHILD.

A Stylishly Dressed Woman Accused of Neglect.

Justice Weide Knew the Woman and Paroled Her.

A stylishly dressed, handsome young woman, who gave her name as Helen Gilmore, of 430 Pleasant avenue, was arraigned in the Harlem Police Court this afternoon on a charge of intoxication and neglecting her seven-year-old girl, who was found with her when arrested.

The complaint was made by Agent Muligan, of the Children's Society. The agent called at the saloon of Christian Bond, at One Hundred and Fifteenth street and Park avenue, last evening, having been informed that the woman and child were in the saloon. The woman was lying in a back room in a state of intoxication, while a drunken man was sleeping on a chair. The girl was playing with a lot of bottles behind the bar.

The woman in court this morning said she had a diamond ring on the finger of one hand. She had also a watch and several other articles of jewelry. The child, who was very pretty, the woman, who was her mother, took her to the saloon on Sunday. The child had nothing but biscuits to eat during all that time.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

The woman in court this morning said she had been taken sick on Sunday, and entered the saloon to obtain refreshments. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick. She said she was very tired, and the child was very sick.

CHOLERA SPREADS IN LISBON.

Reports of 104 Cases and Three Deaths Yesterday.

Spain Sends Doctors to the Frontier of Portugal.

LISBON, April 24.—During the twenty-four hours ending yesterday evening there were 104 cases and three deaths from cholera reported here. The Portuguese Government has stopped all telegraphic messages.

MADRID, April 24.—Spanish doctors have been sent to the frontier of Portugal to superintend the fumigation of travellers and their baggage coming from Lisbon. In addition, the Government has sent a doctor to Lisbon with instructions to report upon the cholera epidemic prevailing in that city.

LONDON FEARS ANARCHISTS.

Precautions to Prevent the Killing of Politicians.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 24.—(Polit and Ferrar) The Italian Anarchists were again brought up and remanded at Bow Street Police Court today. The police having been warned that an Anarchist outrage was contemplated, the court was closely guarded by a strong detachment of police. The greatest precautions were taken by the authorities in order to prevent a bomb explosion, every person appearing in the neighborhood of Bow Street being closely watched, and, in some cases, people carrying parcels, etc., were politely asked to show their contents.

The two prisoners were brought from Holloway Jail in a prison van, and the route from the prison was lined with policemen and detectives, who were alerted at short intervals of a few yards apart. The police feared that an attempt was to be made to attack the prison van and murder Polit as an anarchist, while attempting the rescue of Ferrar.

MORE RIOTING FEARED.

Hungarian Leader Arrested, and Whole District Excited.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 24.—A despatch from Vienna to The Chronicle says that the riot at Hold-Maze yesterday was led by an ex-policeman, named Kovacs. He and many of his companions have been arrested, and fears are entertained that there will be further rioting.

The movement is said to be partly anti-Semitic, partly Socialistic and to some extent religious. Many of the rioters belong to the sect known as the Nasanians. The peasants declare that they have ceased to be Hungarian, have no fatherland, and will neither serve in the army nor pay taxes. They demand that houses and farms be furnished them free, and threaten death to the landlords.

WILL THEY RACE OXFORD?

Winner of Yale-Harvard Event Might Have the Chance.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, April 24.—The President of the Oxford University Boat Club was informed today by the Associated Press of the report in circulation at Cambridge, Mass., that there was a possibility of Oxford challenging the winner of the Yale-Harvard boat race.

The President said that no proposal for a race had been received from the United States, and that the challenge must come from the other side of the Atlantic. He would not say whether Oxford would or would not accept such a challenge, but it is asserted in other quarters that a match race can be arranged with either Yale or Harvard if a contingent challenge be sent immediately.

A French Count as a Forger.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, April 24.—It is reported that Count Edouard de Talleyrand-Perigord, who was arrested last week for a forgery, is now in custody. The count, the complainant being M. Max Leboulay, has confessed that he is guilty of breach of trust. It is also said that the Princess de Sagan has offered to pay the sum of 400,000 francs to Leboulay, on behalf of her son, if the charge against him is withdrawn. Leboulay, however, refuses to withdraw the charge.

FOUR SHOTS IN A PARIS CHURCH.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, April 24.—In the Church of Notre Dame last evening a man, supposed to be insane, drew a revolver and fired four shots, causing a panic in the church, many of the children running shrieking towards the doors. Luckily, not one of the shots took effect, and the man who caused the panic was removed in custody.

MURDER MYSTERY CLEARED UP.

(By Associated Press.)

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., April 24.—The mystery of Mrs. McKeen's murder, which occurred here Jan. 17, is solved by the confession of Henry Pratt, who was arrested near Livertville, N. Y., where he was working on a farm. Pratt told how he and Charles Macard bound and gagged the old lady, took $500 from her home and fled into the crime by Macard, whom he met in Chicago a month before. Macard has been arrested and is now in custody.

YOU READ THE EVENING WORLD: DO YOU READ THE SUNDAY WORLD?

(By Associated Press.)

YOU READ THE EVENING WORLD: DO YOU READ THE SUNDAY WORLD? The Sunday World is a valuable paper, and is read by many people. It contains a great deal of interesting news, and is a good paper to read.

SCHUMACHER WINS THE CASE.

Says He Signed Papers While in a Stupor.

(By Associated Press.)

George Schumacher, a blacksmith, at 60 Canal street, advanced F. Frederickson $1,000 on a chattel mortgage secured by horses and wagons. Frederickson paid $250 on account and refused to pay the balance. Schumacher foreclosed. After the seizure Frederickson, his brother-in-law, Gustav T. Lawrence, and Charles M. Wells, a notary, called on Schumacher, and they all went into a liquor store. While there certain papers were executed and signed by Schumacher, which released his seizure of the horses and wagons.

LOST CASH AND CHECKS.

Satchel Containing $125 in Value Left on a Car Platform.

(By Associated Press.)

William Hyland, a nineteen-year-old clerk in Cashier Adams office, of the White Star Line Steamship Company, 29 Broadway, has been the loss of a black satchel containing $45 in cash and $30 in checks, the property of the Company, which was taken to his home, 19 Grace street, on Saturday afternoon for safekeeping until Monday.

FURTHER CUT IN IMMIGRANT RATES.

The German Steamship Lines made a further cut of 25 in emigrant tickets in English ports today. This brings the rate down to $14 and is the last cut in the rate of rates between the Continental and English lines.

WOULD NOT TELL OF THE WOUNDS.

John Sheridan, forty-two years old, of 84 Second avenue, had two wounds on his left hand dressed today by an ambulance surgeon from the Flinders Hospital. He refused to tell how he got the wounds, and was locked up in the Flinders Hospital.

FIRE MARSHAL SAYS THE REST WAS SOLD AT AUCTION.

(By Associated Press.)

Victor Aski, the second of the men arrested for complicity in the attempt to fire the five-story tenement, 28 East Broadway, while 110 persons were asleep late on Saturday night, was this morning in the Essex Market Police Court held in $5,000 for examination. This Aski next at 2:30 o'clock was fixed as the day of the hearing, and by that time it is hoped Heyman Silberberg, who is said to be the prime mover in the plot, will be under arrest.

JAPANESE RUGS.

comprising about three hundred pieces of odd designs and colorings, and particularly adapted for the furnishing of Summer Cottages. The entire shipment will be disposed of at LESS THAN ONE-THIRD the usual prices (commencing to-morrow, Wednesday, April 25th), a few of which we mention below:

3 feet x 6 feet, $1.60

6 " x 9 " 4.50

9 " x 12 " 10.50

And a variety of other sizes at proportionately low prices.

HEAVY BAIL FOR ASKI.

The Alleged Incendiary Held in $10,000 to Answer.

Some of Silberberg's Stock Found in His Store.

Fire Marshal Says the Rest Was Sold at Auction.

Victor Aski, the second of the men arrested for complicity in the attempt to fire the five-story tenement, 28 East Broadway, while 110 persons were asleep late on Saturday night, was this morning in the Essex Market Police Court held in $5,000 for examination. This Aski next at 2:30 o'clock was fixed as the day of the hearing, and by that time it is hoped Heyman Silberberg, who is said to be the prime mover in the plot, will be under arrest.

Hyman Blumenthal, an employee of Silberberg, as already told in "The Evening World," has been held in $20,000 bail. He made a full confession, implicating Silberberg, Aski and several others, for whom the police are now searching.

"Ten thousand dollars may seem a large amount of bail to demand," said Justice Hogan, in fixing that amount for Aski, but if he is guilty of such enormous crime as attempting to burn up a block containing over one hundred human beings, to gain a few thousand dollars benefit, then the amount is small indeed.